

A HEART THAT'S KIND AND TRUE

Ballad

(Written by)

HENRY F. WATSON

AND RESPECTFULLY INSCRIBED TO

Miss Kate A. Wescott

CHAS. BALMER.

25 Cts. net

NEW YORK

Published by W. HALL & SON 230 Broadway.

St. Louis BALMER & WEBER.

A HEART THAT'S KIND AND TRUE.

Charles Balmer.

MODERATO.

I've sung of eyes that bright - ly beam, And cheeks of ro - sy hue; A no - bler lay be now my theme— A heart that's kind and true..... The eye that

Dim. mf

beams most bright-ly now Must pale with lapse of years...

Ritard. mf

.... And sor-rows soon will cloud the brow Which now most

a tempo. p

fair ap- pears.....

mf

tr. Dim.

p

But there's a gem of price-less worth, And fade-less beau-ty, too, ... Too rare, too bright, too good for

Dim. mf

earth— A heart that's kind and true Thou la- . . . dy,

mf

Ritardando.

hast with-in thy breast That gem so rich and rare

Rit.

a tempo.

... And ne'er was maid of heav'n more blest— So good and

p

yet so fair

mf

Dim.

50.2

Ivan Buzalski, For''

